

I believe the FCC rules on Broadcast ownership should NOT be changed without much further debate. At this time most Americans are not even aware of these potential rule changes, or the consequences they may have. As a country who frequently expresses the greatness of our DEMOCRACY to the world, we should not be making changes to our communications that could jepordize the strength of our democracy. Please give the public further time to learn about this important issue.